

I am very concerned that Sinclair Broadcasting has licenses through the FCC to serve the public interest and what their plans are currently to run a very one sided program "Stolen Honor" does not accomplish that. Perhaps to have both sides represented, like through Going Upriver, would be fairer. I think this is incendiary.